"Through the Holy Spirit we are restored to paradise, led back to the Kingdom of heaven, and adopted as children, given confidence to call God "Father" and to share in Christ's grace, called children of light and given a share in eternal glory."

- St. Basil, De Spiritu Sancto

According to St. Augustine, the Holy Spirit is a gift of God's Love. There is no gift of God more excellent than this. It alone distinguishes the sons of the eternal kingdom and the sons of eternal perdition. Other gifts, too, are given by the Holy Spirit; but without love they profit nothing. Unless, therefore, the Holy Spirit is so far imparted to each, as to make him one who loves God and his neighbor, he is not removed from the left hand to the right. Nor is the Spirit specially called the Gift, unless on account of love. And he who has not this love, "though he speak with the tongues of men and angels, is sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal; and though he have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and though he have all faith, so that he can remove mountains, he is nothing; and though he bestow all his goods to feed the poor, and though he give his body to be burned, it profits him nothing."

La Vida de Unión con el Espíritu Santo

"Si el Espíritu es el principio de nuestra vida, que lo sea también de nuestra conducta." (Gal 5: 25)

El Espíritu Santo, el espíritu de Jesús, ese Espíritu que vino el a traer al mundo, es el principio de nuestra santidad. La vida interior no es otra cosa que unión con el Espíritu Santo, obediencia a sus mociones. Estudiemos estas operaciones que realiza en nosotros.

El Espíritu Santo es quien nos comunica a cada uno en particular los frutos de la Encarnación y de la Redención. El Padre nos ha dado a su Hijo; el Verbo se nos da y en la Cruz nos rescata: tales son los efectos generales de su amor. ¿Quién es el que nos hace participar de estos efectos divinos? Pues el Espíritu Santo. Él forma en nosotros a Jesucristo y le completa. Después de la Ascensión, es el tiempo propio de la misión del Espíritu Santo. Esta verdad es indicada por el Salvador cuando nos dice; "Os conviene que yo me vaya, porque si no el Espíritu Santo no vendrá a vosotros" (Jn XVI, 7) Jesús nos ha adquirido las gracias; ha reunido el tesoro y ha depositado en la Iglesia el germen de la santidad. Pues el oficio propio del Espíritu Santo es cultivar este germen, conducirlo a su pleno desenvolvimiento acabando y perfeccionando la obra del Salvador.
